

Teacher, Performing Arts

The KG Group is a leading educational organisation based in Hong Kong, specialising in preschool, arts enrichment, and English language learning. Founded in 1996, it has a reputation for excellence, and serves an inclusive international community of children and young people through its vibrant learning centres, schools, and high quality proprietary curriculum.

The KG Group is looking for a highly motivated and energetic teacher to join their Performing Arts department in Hong Kong. If you are driven and creative, and looking for a new challenge in your career, this is the opportunity for you.

Requirements:

- Relevant tertiary qualifications and at least one year's teaching experience; preferably in Dance, Musical Theatre, or Speech and Drama
- Able to teach children and teenagers aged 2.5 to 12 years
- Ability to prepare students for drama productions, and familiarity with Trinity Guildhall syllabi an advantage
- Excellent written and spoken English
- Able to develop curriculum and present classes in a fun and creative way
- Experience of working in a multicultural environment
- Highly organised with the ability to work independently and as part of a team
- Work well under pressure with the ability to face challenges

As Asia's leading youth arts organisation specialising in creative education, we provide a competitive package and are committed to helping you reach your full potential.

Salary is dependent on qualifications and experience. Other benefits include sponsorship for visa, private medical insurance, paid leave, and study grant.

Please state your expected salary, benefits package, and availability in your application. Applications that do not give this will not be considered.

To apply please send your CV and cover letter by email to careers@the-kkgroup.com

Visit our website to learn more about us: <http://www.kidsgallery.com>

Data collected will be used for recruitment purposes only.